

French: Speaking and Pronunciation

	Skill	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Speaking and Pronunciation	F1	I can ask and/or answer simple questions.	I can recognise and answer simple questions which involve giving personal information.	I can form a question in order to ask for information.	I can develop extended sentences to justify a fact or opinion.
		I can form simple statements with information including the negative.	I can begin to form opinion phrases.		I can plan, ask and answer extended questions.
		I can practice speaking with a partner.		I can present factual information in extended sentences including justification.	I can engage in conversation and transactional language.
	F2	I can use a short phrase to give information.	I can use a model to form a spoken sentence.	I can rehearse and recycle extended sentences orally.	I can plan and present a short text.
		I can begin to adapt phrases from a rhyme/song.	I can speak in full sentences using known vocabulary.	I can plan and present a short descriptive text.	I can modify, express and compare opinions.
	F3	I can repeat short phrases accurately, including liaison of final consonant before vowel.	I can compare sounds and spelling patterns with English.	I can use intonation and gesture to differentiate between statements and questions.	I can speak and read aloud with increasing confidence and fluency.
				I can make realistic attempts at pronunciation of new vocabulary.	I can compare and apply pronunciation rules or patterns from known vocabulary.
		I can listen to and repeat key phonemes with care.	I can listen and repeat further key phonemes with care.	I can listen and repeat key phonemes with care applying pronunciation rules.	I can discuss strategies for remembering and applying pronunciation rules.
	F4	I can introduce myself to a partner with simple phrases.	I can rehearse and perform a short presentation.	I can adapt a story and retell to the class.	I can give a presentation drawing upon learning from a number of previous topics.
	F5	I can recognise and use adjectives.	I can choose appropriate adjectives from a wider range of adjectives.	I can use adjectives with correct placement and agreement.	I can recognise and use a wide range of descriptive phrases.